

Reconciliation
QUEENSLAND
Incorporated

BOUNDARY TO BOUNDARY STREET WALK

Saturday, 10 August 2019

The Boundary to Boundary Street Walk recognises the boundaries of exclusion from the settlement of Brisbane that were enforced on Indigenous peoples at twilight during the 19th century.

WHEN: Saturday, 10 August 2019 Meet at 1pm to register for a 2pm start.

WHERE: St James College on Boundary Street, Spring Hill, walking to Bunyapa Park West End.

This event will be a footpath walk through the Brisbane CBD, to Reddacliff Place and across Victoria Bridge towards Melbourne Street, then down to Thomas Street, crossing at Boundary Street, South Brisbane. The walk concludes at Bunyapa Park, West End where there will be artwork stalls and live entertainment.

Prior to the walk, come along to a –

Yarnin Circle: Talking together in truth and reconciliation

WHEN: Friday, 9 August 2019, 5pm

WHERE: at the home of Aunty Denise Proud
22 Sherman Street, The Gap.

This Yarnin Circle will give Walk participants an insight into the history surrounding the Boundary Streets of cities and towns in Queensland during early settlement by non-Indigenous people. Aboriginal Elders will be invited to share their memories of the trauma that resulted from such policies.

SUPPORTED BY:

Queensland
Government

Dedicated to a better Brisbane

Keep in contact with Reconciliation Queensland

 @RecQueensland

 fb.com/reconciliationqld

 instagram.com/recqueensland

 linkedin.com/company/reconciliation-queensland-incorporated

www.rqi.org.au