

RQI General Meeting

Saturday, 23rd June 2018

at Mitchelton Library

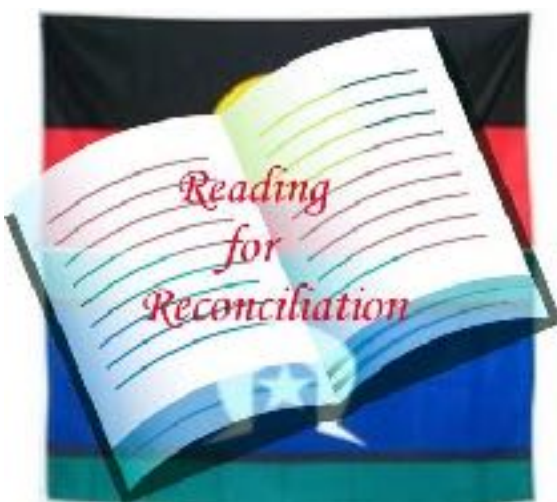

37 Heliopolis Parade, Mitchelton

from 1.00pm until 3.45pm

Meet Reading for Reconciliation founder Helen Carrick

Helen Carrick is a teacher, librarian and historian (retired) who founded the Reading for Reconciliation group, which engages with Indigenous texts and authors.

When she began the book group back in 2004, Helen's dream was that the idea would be taken up more widely and there would be "reading for reconciliation groups springing up all over Australia."

Come along to this RQI general meeting to hear about Helen's passion for the truthful telling of Australian history and the diverse experiences that set her on this path.

Entry to this Reconciliation Queensland general meeting is free and all are welcome.

Please bring a plate of food and/or refreshments for contribution to our afternoon tea. This is a largely informal affair and no motions have been proposed for the meeting.

Donations are always gratefully received and help our volunteer-run organisation continue to run these events, which aim to promote reconciliation while giving our members another opportunity to engage with the Association's management committee.

RSVP: please email events@rqi.org.au or call Rosalie on 0448 468 618
