Discover the Indigenous Literacy Foundation

The Indigenous Literacy Foundation (ILF) is a not-for-profit charity which respects the unique place of Australia's First Peoples and draws on the expertise of the Australian book industry.

For more info about the ILF, visit:

www.indigenousliteracyfoundation.org.au.

Entry is free and all are welcome. Donations will be gratefully received. Please bring a plate of food and/or refreshments for contribution to our afternoon tea.

We will be raffling a copy of the recently reprinted book, written by Glen Miller's mother Aunty Olga Miller: Legends of Moonie Jarl.

RQI is pleased to present ILF Board Member Glen Miller, who will join us to speak about the work of the Foundation.

Glen, a descendant of the Butchella people of the Fraser coast, has worked for more than 20 years to help preserve Aboriginal culture. His experience in education, local government and tourism, brings a unique set of management skills and knowledge to the ILF Board.

Glen is an active member of many Aboriginal organisations, including the Fraser Island World Heritage Indigenous Advisory Committee, the Wondunna Aboriginal Corporation, the Butchella Traditional Owners Aboriginal Corporation, and the Fraser Island Natural Integrity Alliance. He also founded and is President of Butchella Men's Business Aboriginal Association Inc.
