

RQI General Meeting

Saturday, 19th August 2017

at Mitchelton Library

37 Heliopolis Parade, Mitchelton

from 1:00 pm - 3:45 pm

Fusing 50,000 years of history and contemporary performing arts education

*Leilani Pearce
Board Chair
Aboriginal Centre for the Performing Arts*

*Dr Dimitri Kopanakis
Chief Executive Officer
Aboriginal Centre for the Performing Arts*

Vibrant and diverse, the Aboriginal Centre for the Performing Arts is an inspirational centre of training excellence and innovation for contemporary dance, music, and acting. ACPA's Chair of the Board Leilani Pearce, and Chief Executive Officer Dr Dimitri Kopanakis will discuss how, in its 20th year, the centre has developed a stream of celebrated alumni, and continues to encourage excellence, professionalism and respect for Indigenous culture, and the expression of that culture through contemporary performance. All welcome. Entry is free, but donations gratefully received. Please bring a plate of food and/or refreshments as an afternoon tea contribution.

To reserve your place, please RSVP by email to events@rqi.org.au
