

You're invited to a question and answer style panel discussion and to be part of the conversation about discrimination, racism, reconciliation and related issues.

Saturday, 9 September 2017

1:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Cairns Regional Council, Civic Reception Room
Ground Floor, 119-145 Spence Street, Cairns

Invited Panellists

Commissioner Kevin Cocks AM

Anti-Discrimination Commission Queensland

Aunty Flo Watson OAM

Traditional Owner and Elder of the Ghunghanghi People of Yarrabah, North Queensland, respected Aboriginal community spokesperson, a founding member of Reconciliation Queensland and the founder of the Aboriginal Centre for Performing Arts

Mark Yettica-Paulson

Recognise Campaign Director

Associate Professor Henrietta Marrie

Office of Indigenous Engagement, Cairns campus of the Central Queensland University

Kesa Strieby

President of the Cairns and Region Multicultural Association Inc.

Dr Felecia Watkin Lui

Senior Lecturer and the Director of Research Training at Indigenous Australian Studies, James Cook University, Cairns

Guest Speakers

Liz Bond, Coordinator of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Unit, ADCQ, and Nathan Williams of Cairns Regional Council will speak on the topic of:
'Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Timelines'

Recognise Campaign Director Mark Yettica-Paulson will speak on the topic of:
'Recognise: Where to now?'

To RSVP, please send an email to: events@rqi.org.au

Supported by

